

Greg Williams

“For my money, She’s A Girl is a pop masterpiece”

Glenn A. Baker

“Greg has been doing this thing for a long time. We recall seeing his band the Every Brothers at the Club in 1989... they were the best band to come out of Adelaide since Cold Chisel. Splurge is every bit as good as the Everys. Like Grant McLennan, Greg has a voice that is expressive and emotionally direct and these songs are good.”

Jeff Jenkins, InPress Magazine

Biography

Singer, Songwriter and Musician

His first band The Young Homebuyers formed in Adelaide in 1980, then moved to Melbourne. Recorded one album for Polygram in 1982 and released singles Take One Step and She’s A Girl, described by Glenn A. Baker as one of the two great Australian pop singles. Supported Pretenders and Motels on national tours.

Antidote comedy-cabaret band The Latest Thing From England dressed up in silly clothes and performed early 1980s covers in Melbourne.

Returning to Adelaide in 1985, he formed a three-piece pop group Play Loud. Released an independent single Write It Down In Stone, on the Greasy Pop label the first indie single to achieve mainstream airplay on SA-FM.

Formed The Every Brothers in 1986. Released mini album Picks and Pens. In 1987, recorded single This Town, which was picked up by Polygram. Recorded an album Everyone as The Everys. Toured nationally with Toni Childs in 1989.

He released two solo home-recorded albums Here & Now (1990) and Louder Than Words (1991) on the Greasy Record Company/Festival imprint, both of which received JJJ airplay.

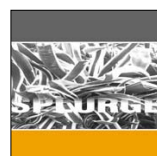

In the early 1990s, he got married, became a father and worked in a proper job before forming Splurge in 1997, which achieved his life-long ambition to be in a band which survived its second album!

In the late 1990s, The Every Brothers not so much reformed, as re-incarnated, with Greg Arnold as an honorary brother, releasing two albums of new material, as well as a retrospective two-CD collection on Round Records.

Splurge’s first album was released independently in 1998. The band’s second album Heavy Weather in 2002 on Sydney label Laughing Outlaw gathered accolades internationally following its release in the UK and USA.

The third Splurge album Cure For The Cure, completed in 2005, was released in 2007 on Melbourne label Popboomerang and was partly funded by a VicArts grant. International reviews lauded the album’s strong material and high production values.

Contact: Greg Williams. +61 412 299 412
greg@splurge.com.au www.splurge.com.au

Greg Williams Discography (Albums and Mini-Album/EPs)

The Young Homebuyers

1982 | Album: Self-Titled (Rough Diamond/Astor)

The Every Brothers/The Everys (1986-1989)

1986 | Mini Album: Picks and Pens (Greasy Pop)
1989 | Album: Everyone - The Everys (Polygram)

Greg Williams (solo)

1990 | Mini Album: Here and Now (Greasy Record Co/Festival)
1991 | Album: Louder Than Words (Greasy Record Co/Festival) - last Festival release issued on vinyl includes bonus tracks from Here and Now.

The Every Brothers (1997-2000)

1997 | Double Album: Picks and Pens (Round Records) - Collection on CD with resequenced Polygram album, Picks and Pens (first time on CD) plus demos and B-sides.

1998 | Album: Junk Factory (Round Records)

2000 | Album: Tintinara Breakdown (Round Records) - Greg Williams and Greg Arnold

Splurge

1998 | EP: 4x4 (Independent)

1999 | Album: Self-Titled (Independent)

2002 | Album: Heavy Weather (Laughing Outlaw Records)

2007 | Album: The Cure For The Cure (Popboomerang Records)

Greg Williams Discography (Singles/Compilations)

The Young Homebuyers

1982 | Single: Take One Step (Rough Diamond/Astor)

1982 | Single: She's A Girl (Rough Diamond/Astor)

Play Loud

1985 | EP: Double Play (Greasy Pop)

1986 | Cassette: Double Double Play (Greasy Pop) - Limited edition with two unreleased Play Loud tracks, plus Picks and Pens.

The Every Brothers/The Everys (1986-1989)

1987 | Single: This Town b/w Swim (Polygram)

1988 | Single: Paved With Gold (Polygram)

1989 | Single: Eyes For The Blind (Polygram)

1989 | Single: Stranger You Are (Polygram)

Greg Williams (solo)

1990 | Single: Even Time b/w I Can't Breathe (Greasy Record Co/Festival)

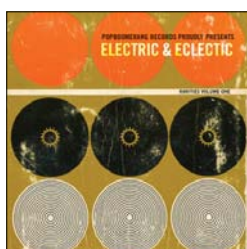

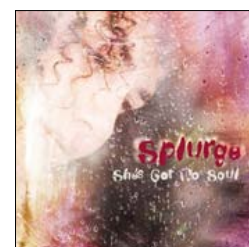

1991 | Single: Blue X Blues (Greasy Record Co/Festival)

Splurge

2000 | Single: Come Monday Morning (Chaos Music)

2001 | Single: She's Got No Soul (Chaos Music)

Compilations

1987 | Album Compilation: Used and Recommended by... - This Town (3RRR)

2011 | Album Compilation: Electric and Eclectic - When I'm Down (Popboomerang)

